

Question - What is a credit card?

Ans - A credit card allows you to borrow money from a bank up to a limit and repay it later within a billing cycle.

Question - How is credit card limit decided?

Ans - The limit is based on your income, credit score, and repayment history.

Question - What happens if I miss a credit card payment?

Ans - You may be charged late fees, interest, and your credit score can decrease.

Question - Can credit card purchases be converted into EMI?

Ans - Yes, banks allow converting large purchases into EMIs with applicable charges.

Question - What is a savings account?

Ans - A savings account lets you store money securely and earn interest on it.

Question - What is minimum balance in a savings account?

Ans - It is the amount you must maintain in your account as per bank rules, unless it is a zero balance account.

Question - How is interest calculated in a savings account?

Ans - Interest is calculated on your daily balance and credited periodically.

Question - What is a personal loan?

Ans - A personal loan is an unsecured loan used for expenses like travel, medical needs, or emergencies.

Question - What is EMI?

Ans - EMI is a fixed monthly payment made to repay a loan including principal and interest.

Question - Can I prepay my loan?

Ans - Yes, loans can be prepaid, but some banks may charge a fee.

Question - What is net banking?

Ans - Net banking allows you to access your bank account online and perform transactions.

Question - How do I reset my net banking password?

Ans - You can reset it using the forgot password option on your bank's website.

Question - What is UPI?

Ans - UPI is a system that allows instant money transfer using a mobile app.

Question - Is UPI safe?

Ans - Yes, it is safe if you do not share your UPI PIN and verify transactions carefully